Introduction:

December 10th is observed as Human Rights Day every year to reaffirm the importance of human rights in re-building the world we want the need for global solidarity as well as our interconnectedness and shared humanity.

Human Rights Day 2020 is more important than other years as the Covid-19 crisis has been fuelled by deepening poverty, rising inequalities, structural and entrenched discrimination, and other gaps in human rights protection. It is only possible to close these gaps and advance human rights by ensuring to build a world that is better, more resilient, just, and sustainable.

This year's Human Rights Day theme is "Recover Better - Stand Up for Human Rights". It is linked to the Covid-19 pandemic with the focus on the need to building a back better by ensuring human rights are the center of the recovery efforts.

Objectives:

1. To increase the level of public awareness and understanding of human rights education.
2. To develop personal skills and social (awareness)skills in students.
3. To aware the nearby local public about the importance of human rights through innovative drawing and by taking human rights pledge.

About the program :

NSS Cell of Yashwantarao Bhonsale College of Pharmacy in collaboration with Yashwantrao Bhonsale College of D pharmacy has organized a 'Drawing competition & Awareness activity' on the occasion of "International Human Rights Day" dated 10th December 2020.

The committee designed a Google form which contains Human Rights Pledge. Total 102 candidates have been taken pledge for human rights and at the same time E-certificates had been distributed to them through NSS cell of YBCP.

The drawing competition was based on theme of the day i.e "Recover Better - Stand Up for Human Rights". Total 21 entries were registered for the drawing competition. Students came up with the innovative drawings. Students also awared the nearby public about the human rights. The competition were judged by
