“College Women’s Development Committee (CWDC) Meeting”

YBCP constituted Women’s Welfare & Grievance Committee and College Women’s Development Committee for the academic year 2015 -16 for the empowerment of girl students. The objective behind it was to establish dignity, high level confidence & self-respect among them. The committee provides an excellent platform for girl students to put up their suggestions or grievances if any. The committee decided to meet every month to discuss the welfare schemes to be implemented for girls. Also the committee decided to arrange expert lectures of renowned personalities who have made a remarkable work in the field of women empowerment.

Chief person of committee was renowned NGO Smt Vandana Karambelkar who runs a non-governmental organisation under the title “Niramay Vikas Kendra” at Kolgaon, Sawantwadi. Smt Karambelkar advised our girl students regarding various aspects viz. behaviour, importance of professional education for girls & especially knowledge centric extra-curricular activities. “To spend your valuable time just with television serials or social media will not work. You need to utilize it in a proper way to be more & more knowledgeable. It will certainly pay you good returns in your future life”. The programme was presided by SYBES Chairperson Sau. Asmita Sawantbhonsale madam along with Principal Dr. Vijay Jagtap and all girl students, Women’s Welfare & Grievance Committee members and entire ladies staff of YBCP.
