6. To understand the basic concept, technology involved in gardening, tree plantation.

About the programme:

A major part of our planet is covered with forests. However, these are being cut at a rapid pace ever since the beginning of the industrial era. Although forests grow naturally however in order to replenish the loss occurring due to deforestation it is essential for us to contribute our bit towards growing forests. Tree plantation is done for this purpose.

Tree Plantation offers numerous benefits to the mankind and we all are well aware about these. We also know that a little effort made by each one of us can make a huge difference to the overall environment on Earth. The reason behind tree plantation is mostly forestry, landscaping and land reclamation. Each of these purposes of tree plantation is important for its own unique reason.
