After Lamp lightening and floral welcome Dr. Dilip Patil Sir addressed audience with achievement of DLLE throughout 2009 to 2020. He had highlighted the participation of more than 700 colleges.

Principal Gawas Sir brief the objectives behind organization . He detailed about college development and achievement .

In the welcome address Dr. Dilip Patil sir elaborated about why only Street Play is included in this UDAAN . As good as part of an art this street play is way through which an information can be shared to the common fellow without spending more money. Mr. Awate highlighted the importance of hobby in the life of person and why hobby is to be there with a human being.

A street play competition was conducted immediately. Along with same poster competition was also conducted. The topic for street play is always based on the project students are working. The topic for poster making was female foeticide. The 13 YBCP DLLE S students performed street play on female foeticide . Students are been asked not to wear I card to avoid disclosure of identity.

In afternoon session lunch was served. After Lunch prize distribution ceremony was conducted. YBCP student Ms. Rashmi Sawant bagged consolation prize for Poster making competition.
