This year, COVID-19 has been the biggest challenge to humanitarian operations around the world. The lack of access and restrictions placed by Governments around the world has resulted in communities, civil society and local NGOs being the frontline of the response.

However, the heroes of our world, here and now, are just as worthy of admiration and celebration because they're real, choosing to help in the most extreme circumstances and their stories show that real life heroes exhibit an uncanny ability to persevere despite the odds, and to do so with humility and dedication.
