Introduction:

There is a sure place at everyone’s home where you have your own small or big library, on this National Librarian’s day activity you just have to rearrange that place well, take a selfie upload it in given link, answer some questions in given link, state your feedback.

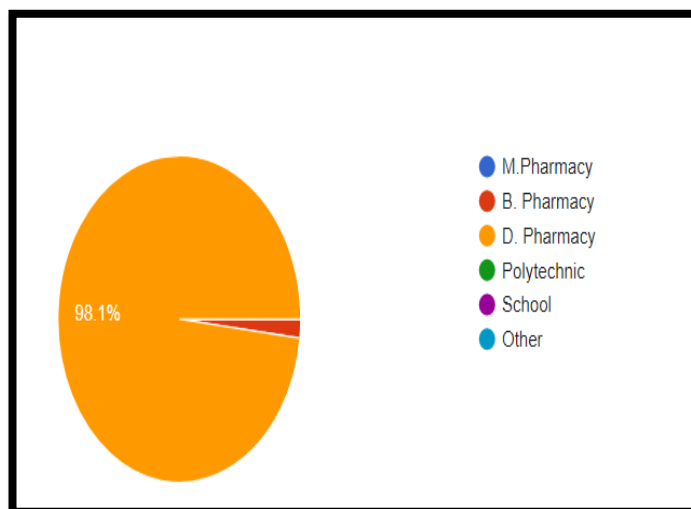

Objectives:

1. To learn the importance of library.
2. To inspire students to arrange their own home library.

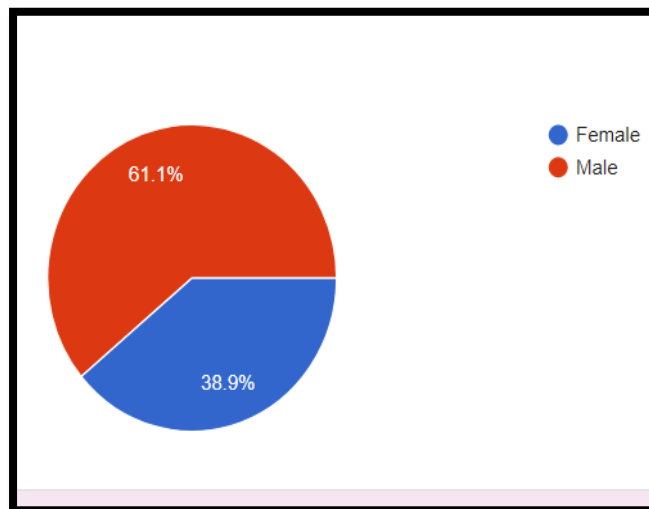

About the Program:

Yashwantrao Bhonsale College of Pharmacy, Sawantwadi has organized online activity on the occasion of National Librarian's day to celebrate 126th birth anniversary of Siyali Ramamrita Ranganathan & to commemorate his contributions towards library science.

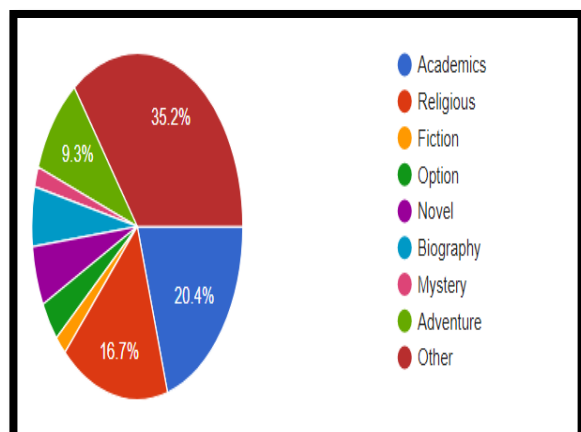

The committee designed a Google form which contains five personal questions and eight library related questions. Total fifty four responses have been collected by committee, further the committee member analyzed the data to check the attainment of activity objectives. Hon. Dr. Vijay Jagtap sir Principal of YBCP has expressed social and academic agenda behind this survey with committee members. The questions asked in the survey and its analysis has been attached here along with this report for future reference.

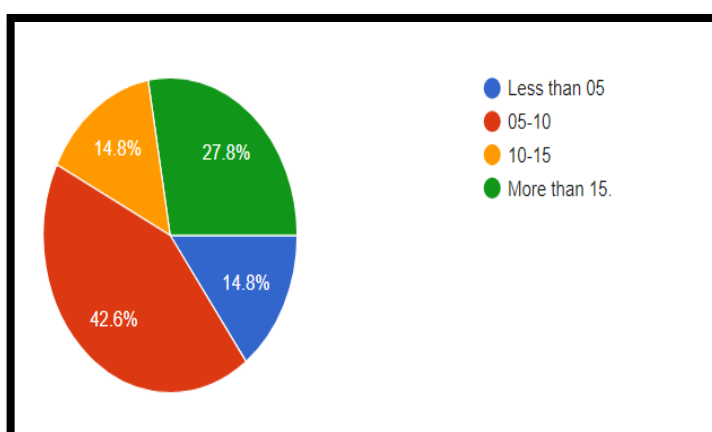

1. Course wise ratio

2. Genderwise students interested in online activity

3. Genera of books

4. Number of books at student's own library

Conclusion of Survey:

After analyzing the data following outcome has been observed which is stated below:

1. Bothe degree and diploma pharmacy students participated in the event, they had given valuable suggestions for library.
2. There is 39% female participant participated in online activity where 61 % male participated in this survey.
3. For the question related to number of books in their home library, most of students have number of books between 05-10, 26% students have books more than 15 in their library corner, 14% students have books less than five.
4. Nearly 35% students has religious books more than academics in their library, while 22% students have good collection of academic books.
5. Some students uploaded only pics of books they have instead of their selfie with it. Library committee decided to improve notice quality so students can understand better the activity and participate actively in the activity.
6. Students appreciated college library ambience, collection of books, library working system.
7. In the suggestion section student stated some improvement for library some important suggestion are, improve newspaper editions, seating arrangement in library, some tarred books should be replaced with new one.

This online activity encourage students to make their own space for reading, books at their home. This activity inspire them that their own library corner is necessary for self-improvement, to help them out to decide and find their goal in their life. Suggestion of students help library committee to improve more the working system of library.
