Yashwantrao Bhonsale College of Pharmacy, Sawantwadi in collaboration with Sahayog Gram Vikas Mandal, Majgaon Sawantwadi organized “Shala-College Te Shetakari Bandh Upakram” on 8th July 2023 to aware today’s youth towards agriculture, to build an interest in agriculture work and to educate the farmers and make them aware about the government schemes provided by state & central government which would up-lift the level of farming and agriculture by inducing modern practices and help them for the same. This step was not only taken on local basis but would raise it to the state level as well as on national basis. This was a deliberate act for youngsters to involve in the agriculture practice and the program was very well successful. The local MLA’s as well as the political leaders were also involved in the program. The students from different institutions along with their faculty members were involved with great enthusiasm. The local farmers were helped by the organization which involved more than 500 students and were helped in their agricultural work. This led us to see their happiness and joy by seeing young enthusiasts helping them. The organization who stood with the farmers by showing the act of kindness such as: The Yuvraj of the Sawantwadi Palace Mr. Yuvraj Lakhamraje Bhonsale himself took the charge of implementing and helping the program. This program is arranged on a large scale for about 8-9 days in different places and various farmers are benefited by this program.

Objectives:

- ✓ To encourage the youth for the agriculture practices.
- ✓ To uplift the youth's dedication towards issues and need in society.
- ✓ Help the farmers in their working area.
