OBJECTIVE:

Pharmacy is a global Profession and as the world becomes more global the demand for professional who can communicate in multiple languages is growing. Not surprisingly, most corporations and industries need employees who can communicate in multiple languages being fluent in two or more languages opens up the door to a variety of job opportunities not available to monolingual job candidates.

About The Programme:

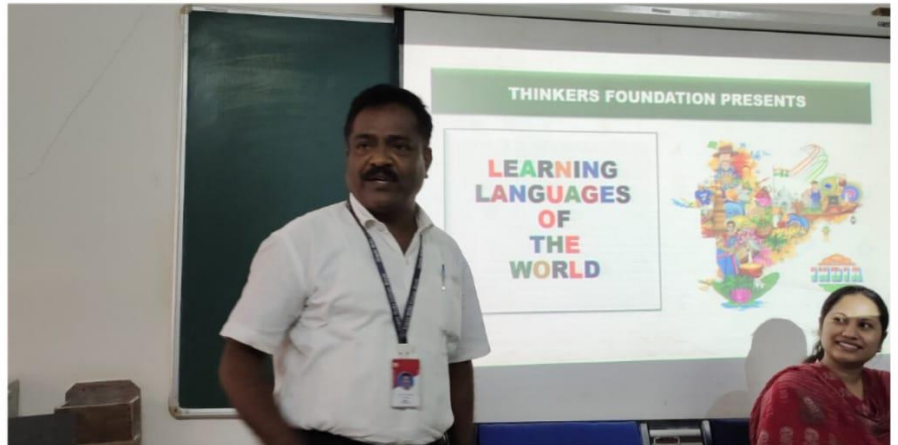

"Plan B Club and Training Placement Cell of Yashwantrao Bhonsale College of Pharmacy conducted a session on "Learning Languages of the World," on 17th May 2024, which is an initiative by the Thinkers Foundation based in Bicholim, Goa. It is the non-government organization which is partially funded by CSIR and aimed at First Year B. Pharm students. The program started with a welcome note by Dr. Vijay Jagtap, Principal of YBCP, wherein he encouraged students to enroll in the course and explained the importance of learning foreign languages in the Pharma field. Later, Dr. Ramakant Gawade, Professor at Gogate Walake College Banda and Taluka Coordinator of Career Katta, introduced the course to the students.

Following this, Mr. Shourya Bisaria, Coordinator of the Thinkers Foundation, briefed the students on the foundation's objectives, mission, and course details, including the program's mode, fees, timings, and the languages offered, such as English, French, and Arabic. He also introduced the resource persons, encouraged students to enroll, and gave the example of a beneficiary, Miss, Neha Gawas from Gogate Walake College, Banda. The event was successfully organized by the TPC coordinator, Ms. Namita Bhosale. First Year students asked their queries to speakers in question answer session.
