Objective of the Events

1. Raise awareness about legal rights and services for mentally disabled individuals and children.
2. Educate students on the Right to Education Act and the POCSO Act.
3. Enhance understanding of legal processes for supporting vulnerable populations.
4. Encourage student engagement in legal aid and community service.
5. Provide opportunities to interact with legal professionals and address legal queries.

About the Program:

On July 26, 2024, Yashwantrao Bhonsale College of Pharmacy (YBCP) in Sawantwadi, in association with the Lawyers Bar Association Sawantwadi, hosted a successful Legal Aid Camp in the college's Seminar Hall.

The event featured informative sessions led by Adv. Mr. Swapnil Kolgaonkar and Adv. Mrs. Pooja Jadhav. They covered crucial legal topics, including legal rights for mentally disabled individuals, children's rights, the right to education, and the POCSO Act. Second-year B. Pharm students attended and gained significant insights into these important issues.

The camp was attended by Dr. Rohan Barse, PG Head of the Department of Pharmaceutics, who was a distinguished guest. Mr. Vinod Biradar, Assistant Professor of Pharmaceutical Chemistry, also participated in the event. The session was anchored by third-year students Ms. Saniya Wairkar and Ms. Saniya Nawar, who ensured the smooth conduct of the program.
